

Award categories for 2025

An overall winner from the 5 categories will be awarded by Andrew Barton

Award Number	Award Title	Sponsor
1	Supporting the training of Apprentices to achieve a successful outcome. This award acknowledges and celebrates a college or training provider's exceptional contributions to the apprenticeship programmes in the hairdressing, barbering and beauty sector. To include delivery, end point assessment and outcomes.	HABIA
2	Showing outstanding employer engagement. For this award tell us about partnerships and links that have been developed within the industry and employers. Also, initiatives for staffing CPD opportunities.	Dermalogica
3	Demonstrating excellent support for students/trainees. This award is for an individual that prides themselves on the support that they have given to the students and learners. Describe ways in which they have helped and inspired learners, and how the learners have progressed through the support they have been given.	CENGAGE
4	Excellent individual tutor/trainer of the year. This award is for teachers or lecturers who have gone beyond their job role in inspiring all students and learners to reach their potential. They always deliver exciting high-quality teaching, inspiring their students or learners.	VTCT
5	Exceptional teamwork Tell us how the team has impacted on students and learners and their lives; describe the work the team have done to enable students and learners to achieve their goals and ambitions.	City & Guilds

Exceptional student award to be announced at the Learning and Development forum Gala Dinner.

The award will be presented at the National finals on Monday 12th May 2025

Exceptional Student of the Year for 2024/25 This award celebrates a student’s commitment to their studies both in practical and theory. Tell us why they are exceptional this may include but is not limited to how they have approached their studies, entered extra curriculum activities which support their learning, competitions, voluntary work, going that extra mile.	Sponsor QUALIFI
---	---